

Scenes from "Lincoln and His Times:
Images of Lincoln"
April 27, 2017

Ross and Sandy Richardson greeted visitors at the front door of the Old Courthouse Museum at 110 East Jefferson, Effingham Illinois

Marylynne and Gratton Tolliver played Civil War music.

Sandy Richardson shared the story of Matilda Flack's dance with Abraham Lincoln at Vandalia, during which he displayed his skill - by stepping on her dress and tearing it!

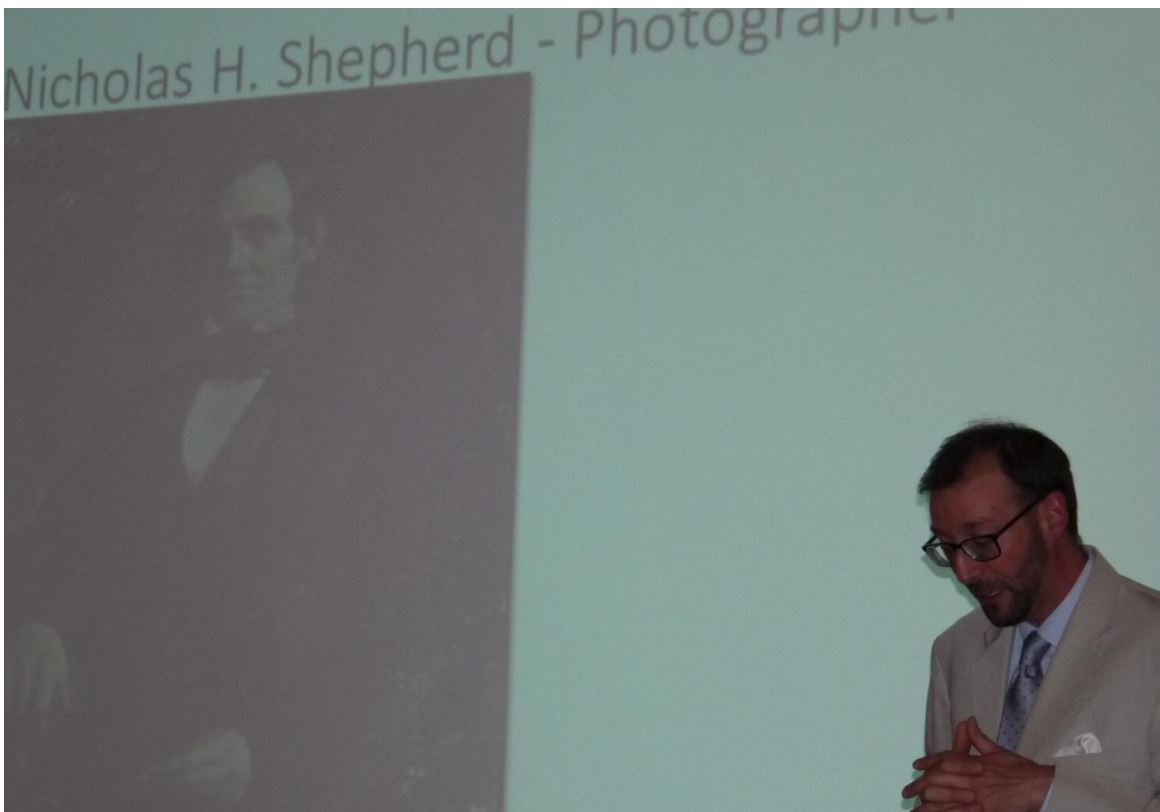

Gratton Tolliver (L) and Dan Wormhoudt (R) depicted the uniform styles of the Civil War soldier.

Lake Land College faculty member Matt Grieder spoke about Lincoln' relationship with the newspapers of his day.

Shane Rogers, also of Lake Land College, spoke about Lincoln as a photographic subject, before and after death.
